

CROSSING BORDERS

8.00pm this Tuesday 15th May in the Stye Brae Centre at Gilnahirk Presbyterian Church. This is an opportunity to talk about borders, Brexit, our own border and the various forms of borders we construct between peoples. We presume that everyone attending will have a wide range of opinions and questions about how our wee part of the world is relating to the rest of this island, Britain, Europe and even beyond. There is no plan to come to any consensus nor even provide any answers. We will use the book of Ruth as a starting point to help us discern how our biblical text can speak into the public square. The conversation will be led by Glenn Jordan (Theologian and Blogger) and anyone who is interested in our place in this world will be welcome.
