SVP THANK YOU

St Vincent de Paul would like to thank all who contributed so very generously to our Christmas appeal, resulting in a fantastic total of £ 5501 donated. This was a fantastic response and will help many families through the winter. Thanks too to everyone who collected for us outside local shops in the run up to Christmas. A total of £ 2,700 was raised from these collections. Thank you for giving your time so freely.

DIOCESAN DIRECTORY 2018

The Diocesan Directory is available at the back of the Church to buy, price £4. Information on parishes, Mass times, parish schools, names and addresses of Priests, pastoral and spiritual organisations. Please put money in one of the boxes in the wall next to the candelabra.

LECTURE

Entrance Antiphon	After the Lord was baptised, the heavens were opened, and the Spirit descended upon him like a dove, and the voice of the Father thundered: This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.
Psalm	With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.
Communion Antiphon	Behold the One of whom John said: I have seen and testified that this is the Son of God.

In this Sunday's Gospel, in Mark's description of the baptism of Jesus, it is unclear if the vision and the voice are witnessed by Jesus alone. The heavens are torn apart indicating that this is a divine revelation. There is also the sense of the barrier between the divine and human world being ripped away. The voice from heaven in claiming Jesus as God's son indicates that Jesus is the long awaited Messiah. Mark 1:7-11
