GOSPEL: John 2: 13-25

The aim of the dramatic gesture in the courtyard of a Temple, is not to oppose the holding of a market in a holy place. Animals were necessary for pilgrims' Temple sacrifices. Money changers were essential to stop pagan images on foreign coins entering the more sacred areas of the Temple complex—by exchanging them for Temple currency. Jesus' act risks being labelled a rejection of things deeply important to pious Jews. In this light, his co-religionists' questions are unsurprising. The Jews remain mystified, but John's readers see later the old worship must give way to the new one begun in Jesus: since he is to become the New Temple, the old worship must now yield to the new.

Would you be interested in exploring new ways to pray this Lent?

A programme of prayer will be presented to parishioners in March on 3 Tuesday evenings, repeated on 3 Friday mornings. The sessions will be based around Lectio Divina and Visio Divina.

Lectio Divina, a Latin term, means 'divine reading' and describes a way of reading the scripture whereby we gradually let go of our own agenda and open ourselves to what God wants to say to us.

Visio Divina shares its roots with Lectio Divina. It invites the viewer into 'divine seeing' when meditating on the image that is presented to the individual. With our culture becoming more and more visually oriented, an intentional way of praying with images is needed more than ever. Visio Divina invites us to a more contemplative place. It invites us to see all there is to see, exploring the entirety of the image. It invites us to see deeply beyond first and second impressions. It allows God, who is never limited or tied to any image, to speak to us through them.

The programme of prayer will take place in the Parochial Hall beginning on this Tuesday 6th March at 7.30pm and will be repeated on Friday morning 9th March at 10.00am.

Please indicate your interest by signing the sheet at the back of the Church.

TRÓCAIRE

"How much longer will you set on a victim, all together, intent on murder, like a rampart already leaning over, a wall already damaged?" Psalms 62:3
Today we pray for the people of Eastern Ghouta in Syria. Hundreds of innocent civilians have been killed in the bombing of the past two weeks including many children. Trócaire's partners continue to work on the ground in horrendous conditions. We pray for those who can resolve this crisis to find the political will to do so.
Please pick up a Trócaire Box pack in the Church porch. To find out more on Trócaire's work view : www.trocaire.org
