A privileged time to come away from noise and distractions, and listen to the Spirit of God, - Who is Love. Silence, prayer, teachings & liturgy of the Church.

TWILIGHT WALK NORTHERN IRELAND Friday 27th September 2019 @ 7.00pm

Experience a walk like no other, with a festival atmosphere, music, entertainment and spectacular firework finish.

Bring your family, bring your friends and support people living with terminal illness in Northern Ireland.

This year's 7km route takes in beautiful Barnett Demesne (South Belfast) and the Shaw's bridge towpath area, including the Lock Keepers Cottage and newly reinstated lock gates.

The walk will start at 7.30pm and we'll be at the starting point from 6.30pm to greet you before you set off. It should take an average walker around one and a half to two hours to complete.

The route is circular, starting and ending at Belfast Activity Centre in the beautiful grounds of Malone House at Barnett Demesne. Please call us on 02890 882060 if you have any queries.

SUMMER ROTAS

Many parish volunteers are away on summer holidays over the next few weeks. Thanks to those who were able to provide information about their availability to read, distribute Holy Communion, serve at Mass and welcome parishioners and visitors during the summer period.

Could all those who are now on the July & August Mass rotas, in their respective roles, please take personal responsibility to get a replacement if their plans change. The rotas are displayed at the back of the Church and on the notice board in the porch.

Your committed involvement in lay ministry in our church is highly valued and sincerely appreciated.
